Review of asset class performance

External debt

- Resilient index performance (-1% 6m to Dec'14) but significant dispersion across 62 countries
- Impact from higher yield/longer duration and high conviction positions in countries where sentiment has deteriorated
- Highly attractive near-term returns: ~6% yield, 350bps spread over USTs

Local currency

- USD strength weighed on returns (index -11%); bonds delivered +3% return
- Continued strong recovery in relative performance
- Policy flexibility and sound fundamentals not reflected in 6% yield

Corporate debt

- Similar to external debt, -1% return, IG outperformed HY
- Impact of HY bias and specific country exposures
- EM/DM credit spreads at widest level since 2011 Eurozone crisis

Blended debt

- Reference benchmark declined 6% over the 6m period
- Active management of LC offset weaker performance of ED and CD
- Diversified asset classes require specialist, active management through the cycle

Equities

- MSCI EM index fell 8%
- Volatile relative returns in BGA, returned to substantial outperformance over past quarter
- Attractive discount to DM equities, opportunities through improved market access (e.g. Saudi Arabia, China)

Emerging Markets diversity requires specialist, active fund management skills

- All funds and segregated accounts (excluding special situations, multi-strategy and passively-managed funds) with a benchmark as at 31 December 2014 (1 year: 103 funds; 3 years: 54 funds; 5 years: 22 funds)
- SICAV institutional USD share classes have been used as representative for multi-share class SICAV funds
- One year performance is the 12 month period ending 31 December 2014; annualised three year performance is the 36 month period ending 31 December 2014; annualised five year performance is the 60 month period ending 31 December 2014

Investment performance largely reflects weak sentiment at this point in the cycle

Emerging Markets outlook

- Long-term Emerging Markets investment thesis unchanged
 - Lower and more sustainable debt levels than developed countries (56% of GDP, only 12% of debt)
 - Low net external debt owing to large stock of FX reserves (>4x foreign portfolio holdings)
 - Faster growth supported by structural not cyclical factors
 - Greater policy flexibility (fiscal discipline, positive real interest rates)
 - Rich diversity across more than 60 Emerging Markets
- Near-term return opportunities due to disconnect between Emerging Markets fundamentals and asset prices
 - Inflation expectations remain low (<4% in 2015)
 - 70% of Emerging Markets benefit from lower commodity prices (e.g. China, India, Turkey)
 - Emerging Markets assets price in normalisation of monetary conditions
 - Greater diversity will be apparent in 2015, requiring specialist, active fund management skills

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This document does not constitute an offer to sell or an invitation to buy shares in Ashmore Group plc or any other invitation or inducement to engage in investment activities. Certain statements, beliefs and opinions in this document are forward-looking, which reflect the Company's current expectations and projections about future events. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements contained in this document regarding past trends or activities should not be taken as a representation that such trends or activities will continue in the future. The value of investments, and the income from them, may go down as well as up, and is not guaranteed. Past performance cannot be relied on as a guide to future performance. Exchange rate changes may cause the value of overseas investments or investments denominated in different currencies to rise and fall. The Company does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this document.
